A WORD From The Editors

As editors of this yearbook, we wish to thank everyone who has helped in the least way. Through this yearbook, we hope that you, the Class of '70, will be able to look back on your school years as happy and educational. If this is fulfilled, then our task has been completed. So to you, the Class of '70, we present this 1970 Cardinal.

Dedicated To

Go tell the Spartans, thou that passeth
by,
That here, obedient to their laws, we lie.

Simonides of Ceos

O may some spark of your celestial fire
The last, the meanest of your sons inspire,
(That on weak wings, from far, pursue your flights,
Glows while he reads, but trembles as he writes)
To teach vain Wits a science little known,
T'admire superior sense, and doubt their own.

Alexander Pope

So live, that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm, where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death,
Thou go not, like the quarry slave at night,
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave,
Like one that wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams.

Principal

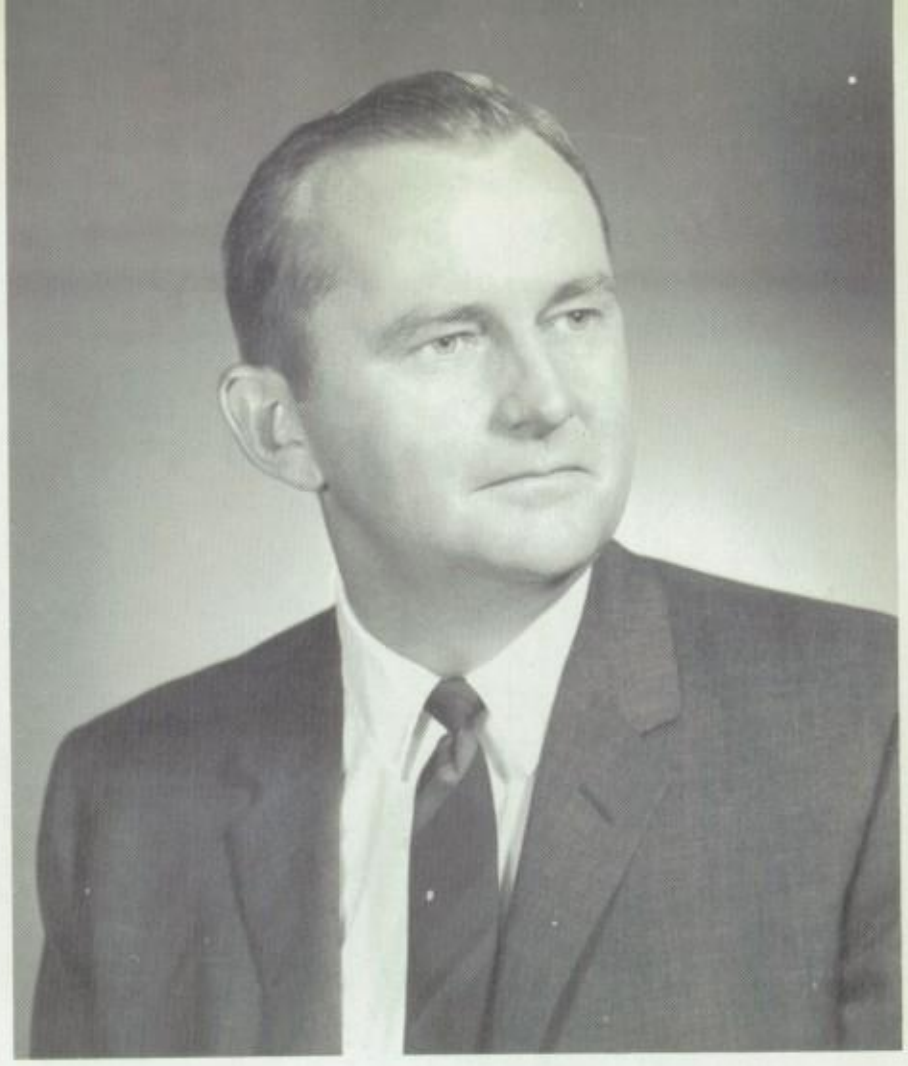
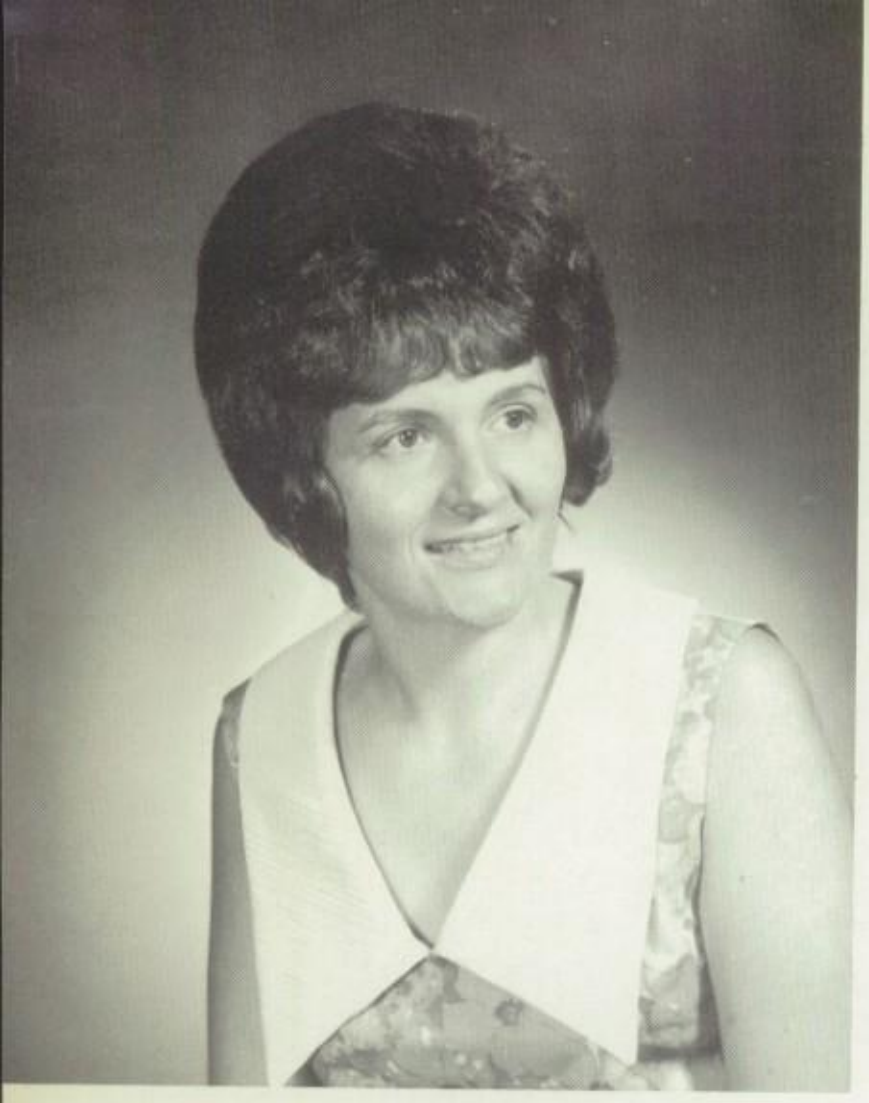
Directing our high school system is Mr. Norris, whose job is concerned with working with students, teachers, and parents. His tasks include helping to settle disputes between students and helping each individual student cope with his individual problem. He also keeps discipline throughout the school.



If any one persons were to be singled out of this school district, and accredited for doing work above and beyond the call of duty, it would have to be Lamoine Hill. It is our opinion that there is not a man connected to the school who is more dedicated to his work. Besides being school treasurer, pay master, caretaker of the Senior class funds, and bookkeeper, he is a friend of all. Putting it bluntly, the school is held together by Lamoine. Speaking for the Senior Class, and the whole school body, we thank you.

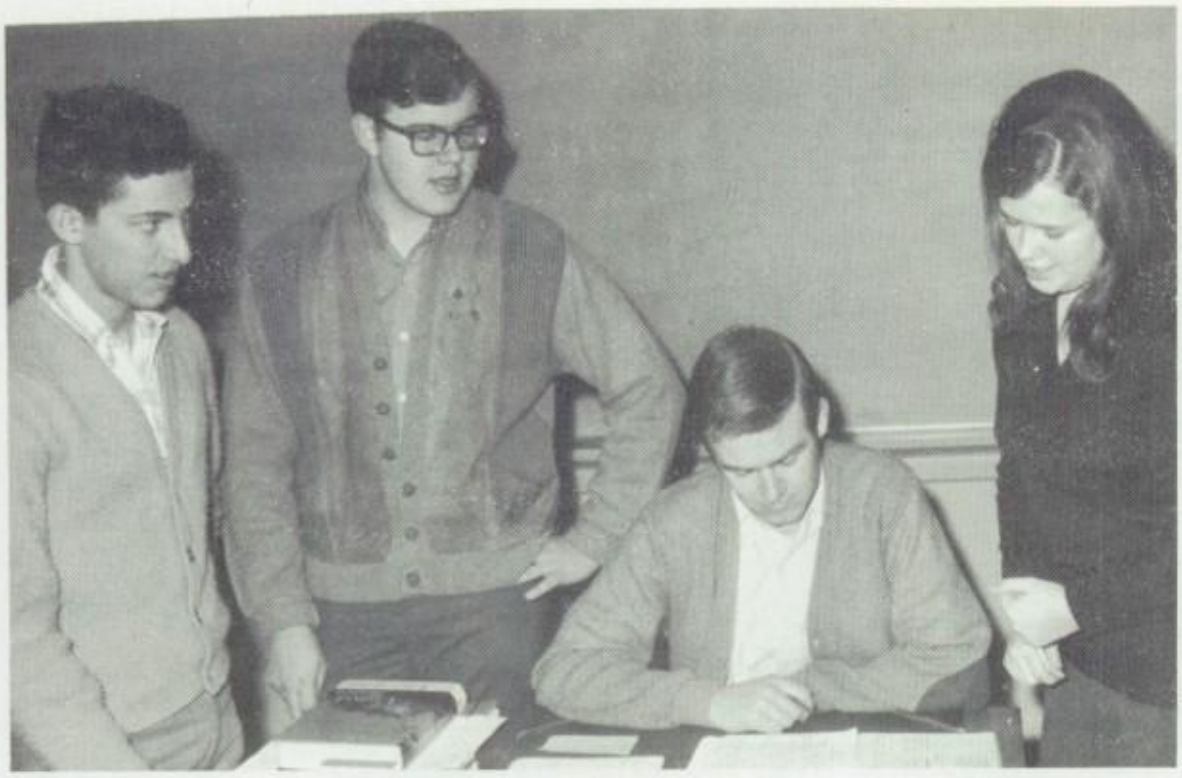


Mrs. Beverly McKenzie, High School Secretary

Miss Diane Hill, Audio Visual Technician

Mrs. Ludene Taylor, Grade School Secretary

Mrs. Kathryn Obermeier, Library Technician



Junior and Senior English classes have viewed many recurrent themes in literature. For example, both classes viewed man's selling of his soul to the devil in return for prosperity. The Junior Class viewed it in "The Devil and Daniel Webster" and "The Devil and Tom Walker," while the Senior Class viewed this theme in Dr. Faustus.

Coupled with literature, both classes viewed the intregal parts of composition – Thesis sentence, introduction, body, conclusions. Hopefully both classes now see the complexities and inner workings of a unified and organized composition.

The Sophomore English classes studied a variety of literary works, from the classics Silas Marner and Julius Caesar to the more modern study of man and his survival in The Good Earth. To enhance the awareness of communicating one's ideas, panel discussions, individual speeches, and compositions were experimented by the student.

The Freshmen besides studying traditional grammar, studied literature as an anthology. Thus, poetry, novels (Mistress of Mellyn and The Hound of the Baskervilles) essays, short stories, and plays were studied. In addition, the students received weekly copies of Scope, a magazine discussing contemporary problems affecting the youth.

World History students studied the part man played in World History from prehistoric man to present day. The teenage newspaper, The Junior Review, has played a vital role in helping the freshman students understand present-day conditions. The freshman students have been kept quite busy this year, but so has Mr. Turner, who says, "Summer vacations are great for students and facultyalike!"

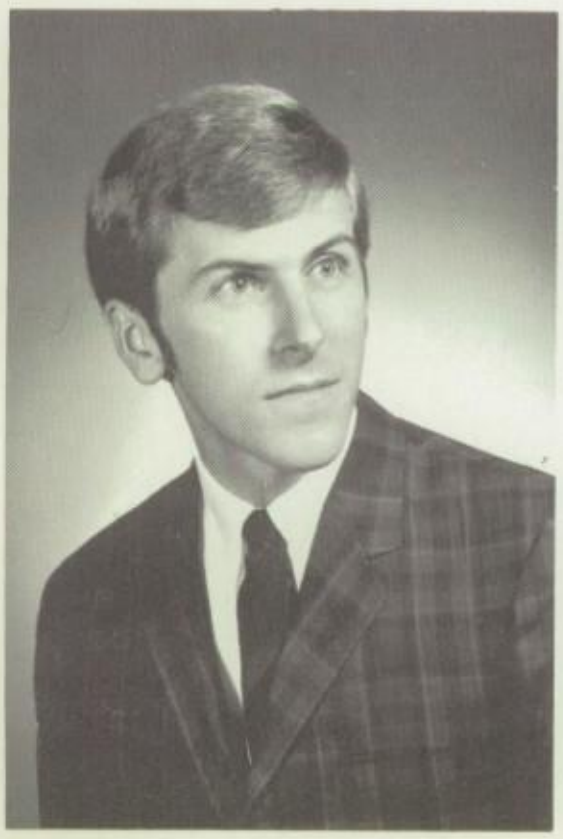
Mr. Gholson's day is brightened by: witty comments of freshmen in Consumer Problems, giving Constitution tests over and over in American History, bogged-down discussions in Economics, and grading the map work of budding young cartographers in Geography. Mr. Gholson's favorite project – Illinois History – reached a high point in April when our school served as host for the Illinois Student Historians of the Southern Region.



A very capable teacher, Mrs. Doerner, teaches her native language to Spanish students. She not only teaches Spanish, but also the customs and environments of the Spanish-speaking countries. In Spanish I the tape recorder is often used to first acquaint the students with the foreign language. Later, games are played for entertainment as well as to increase the students' Spanish vocabulary. Spanish II consists of advanced learning.

Band and Chorus members started the school year by participating in many of the area parades, even in the rain. Both Band and Chorus provided entertainment at the basketball games throughout the year. They also provided the student body with a very entertaining Christmas program. Band and Chorus members also worked hard in order to participate in some of the major music contests in this area.

Mathematics, an essential part of every student's curriculum, is also an essential part of NCOHS. Mr. Greer helps to bridge the gap between student and text book. The subjects he teaches are Algebra I, Plane Geometry, Algebra II, Math IV, and Physics. Everyday in Room 6, Mr. Greer can be seen translating the seemingly Greek to good ol' NCOHS language.

The science courses of NCOHS are taught by Mr. Russell. Biology I and II consist of bug and leaf collections along with an extensive study of microorganisms. Chemistry, being a college prep course, offers hard work, a lot of study, and (on days after we've won ballgames) pleasant discussions between student and teacher. The picture below shows some Biology II students intent on the job of disecting a shark.

Books, periodicals, filmstrips, recordings, 8mmloops, tapes and slides are all a part of the growing collection of audio-visual materials housed and circulated by the library. It also orders and schedules films for classroom use, thereby implementing the educational program of the entire school. Fifteen students serve as student librarians. In addition to performing routine duties, such as charging and shelving books, they also participate in other library practices which add to their body of skills and general knowledge.

Bookkeeping students, after learning the basic principles of bookkeeping, then applied their knowledge in preparing various business forms and in completing practice sets. They also studied taxes and learned to prepare 1040's and accompanying tax schedules. After learning the shorthand characters and brief forms, shorthand students strive for higher speeds in dictation and transcription. Typing I students strive to master the typewriter and keyboard. They also learn to type personal and business letters, outlines, themes and reports, tables, and tabulations. Typing II students strive for greater speed and accuracy. They learn to type and run off masters and stencils. They also learn filing and numerous other jobs required of office employees.

The Home Ec. classes at N.C.O.H.S. are planned to provide the student with a large variety of topics, some of which are nutrition and meal planning, clothing construction, child development, family living, and housing and home furnishings. The Home Ec. classes have proved to be very interesting.

Shop classes are planned to provide students with a large area of knowledge. They are taught the correct use of tools and machinery, such as planers, saws, and sanders.

Shop I classes are taught drawing, hand-woodworking, electricity, welding, forging, and ceramics. In Shop II, projects such as handkerchief boxes, picture frames, wall plaques, and desks are created by the junior craftsmen. In Shop III, you can see anything from bedroom suites to gun and stereo cases. Shop IV classes have advanced to architectural drawing where they design and draw a complete set of house plans and then construct a scale model home. They are also concerned with machine drawing and blueprint reading.

When you walk into the Ag. Department, you walk into a jungle of lawn mowers, small engines, and truck motors. With these objects the Ag. IV boys are learning the principles and functions of small and large engine mechanics. The Ag. III boys are working on the ways of filling out income tax forms. Ag. II is in the shop welding; these boys make everything from gates to feeding troughs. The Ag. I boys are in the classroom learning about the proper care of animals. Other projects of the Ag. boys are soil judging contests, livestock contests, and crop production. The whole Ag. department is set up to insure the students of a more successful career in Agriculture.

Driver's Training has become a very important phase of education at N.C.O.H.S. Unless a student has had this course, he cannot get his license until he has reached age 18. Thus, Mr. Johnson is met by eager students who help to make Driver's Training entertaining as well as educational.

Girls' Physical Education consisted of many sports and three weeks of health. The girls started the year off with field hockey and then came soccer. When the weather began getting bad, they moved indoors and played basketball, danced, gymnastics, and volleyball. The girls worked hard at trying for the Presidential award. The remaining weeks of school were spent playing softball, archery, and track and field.

Boys' Physical Education consisted of most all sports and the required three weeks of health. Football was the tip-off for the school year and as the weather worsened, the activities moved into the gym where basketball and volleyball became the main activities. Three weeks of the second semester were spent on health in which first aid and general knowledge of diseases were learned. The final weeks of 69-70 were spent playing basketball, cork ball, softball, soccer, and golf.

History Came Alive

. . . the electric eye at Menard Penitentiary and that frisk job?

At 6 a.m. sharp, November 22, 1969, the bus left NC-OHS. American History classes had a day of "living history" in Randolph County – where Illinois began. Mrs. Mosby and Mr. Gholson kept things "ship shape" on the way to Menard and the "crew" did a fine job of maintaining the "boat." Do you remember . . .

. . . a stroll over a "sleepy" Mary's River and one of Illinois' few reamining covered bridges?

. . . reading the Ode to a Sunken City (Kaskaskia) buried by the waters of Father Marquette's River?

. . . the stop at the "Mt. Vernon of the midwest" – home of Pierre Menard, first lieutenant governor of Illinois.

. . . finding a snake and a giant hill to test your physical fitness upon?

Poor Aunt Sally, She's so worried that her sweet nephew Tom is lying hurt somewhere. She doesn't know he's up to some real mischief.

The arrival of the two (fake) uncles brought much excitement to the household.

Here the talkative Mrs. Hotchkiss forces her daughter, Glory Belle, to fake a faint in order to get her married to the good, rich, Doctor who is in love with Mary Jane.

Jim thinks Lize is a powerful good looking gal, and Lize thinks Jim's pretty fine too.

Tom and Huck have to threaten Jim in order to get him to use his blood in writing a journal on Uncle Silas's shirt.

The Duke and King hide the money during the night while everyone is asleep, but unknowingly under the table lurk two sneaky varmits (Tom and Huck).

The Duke seems to think that the King stole the money from him; he figures he can beat him into confessing as to where it is.

The two sneaky varmits are the stage hands, Stan Hill and Stan Mayberry.

Tom's plan to get Jim free is for Jim to dress up as a witch and chase him through the house and out to freedom.

The loyalty of Jim overpowers his desire to run away when he finds Master Tom unconscious by the river.

Illinois History — Summer 1969

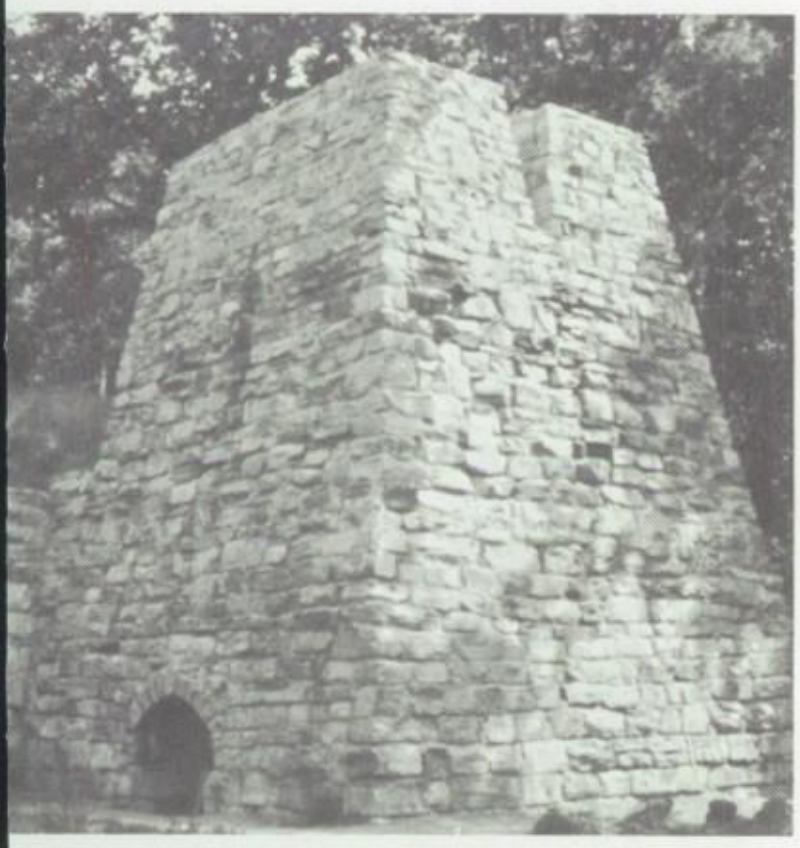
Last summer Illinois social studies was taught in the summer school program. Classroom work was made more interesting by weekly field trips where everybody learned that HISTORY IS FUN.



Iron Furnace, north of Rosiclare

As of February, Edna Reynolds had one article published and Ken Lewis had three articles published in the "Illinois History" magazine.

A money making project which proved to be very profitable for the Junior Class was the sale of Tom Wat kits. All of the students, along with our dedicated sponsor, Mr. Pavelonis, worked to raise money for the coming Senior Trip. Here the top two salesmen are shown. Kenneth Lewis sold a total of $355 worth while Debbie Wallace tallied up $110 worth.

Intramurals

During the winter months, intramurals were held at NCOHS. The first sport in the intramurals was volleyball. Most classes and clubs had a team. The preliminary games were played during noon hour. The final championship games were played during an all school assembly. The "Beta Club Reds" and the "Sophomore" girls battled it for the girls' championship. It was the "Projectionists" vs. the "Sophomore" boys for the boys' championship. The "Beta Club Reds" overtook the "Sophomore" girls by a score of 21–19. The "Projectionists" beat out the "Sophomore" boys by the same margin of two points. Mr. Gray refereed the games. The boys also played basketball while the girls played volley tennis. Both played washers.

Junior Varsity

Under Coach Pavelonis, the Jr. Fighting Cards had a very successful season. This year's team was made up of desire to win, spirit, capability to play as a team, and above all, hustle. The Jr. Cards were well balanced in scoring and equally tough in rebounding. Another factor which led to the success of the team was their ability to play as gentlemen and to keep their heads in a tight situation.

We wish to congratulate the Jr. Varsity on their fine performance all during the 69-70 Basketball season.

Freshman Basketball Team

This year's freshman team had a successful season, consisting of 9 wins and 5 losses. Most of their games were cliff-hangers and usually this talented group rose to the occasion. The majority of the yearling's losses came when key personnel were injured or ill.

The starting five consisted of Bob Armstrong, Charles Inboden, David Carroll, Jimmy Starks, and Larry Tharpe. These five boys were all dependable and all five contributed to a balanced scoring attack. Also, the reserves performed creditably when filling in for starters or in "B" games. The reserves made up in enthusiasm what they lacked in ability. The freshman team and Coach Gray deserve congratulations on a fine season.
